ACTIVITIES

STUDENT STAFF

The Student Staff, under the direction of Miss MacLaren, publishes the year book each spring. This year the Staff held an All-Hi Party on May 20.

HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, with fifteen active members, managed the Book Exchange and was also co-sponsor of the band uniform project this semester. They were in charge of the notification and initiation ceremonies for new members who were elected in May.

LIGHTHOUSE STAFF

The Lighthouse this year, under the direction of Lillian Purdy, editor, has far surpassed any editions for many years. An added feature which drew much attraction was the candid camera page of members of our school.

VERSE SPEAKING CHOIR

The Club has made many appearances this year. The outstanding performance was at the Spotlight when they recited and acted out "The House That Jack Built." Miss Hyde is the sponsor.

FORENSIC CLUB

The Forensic Club is organized in conjunction with the Public Speaking Department, under the direction of Mr. Densmore. The club members debate with other schools on current topics.

ETIQUETTE CLUB

In the Etiquette Club which Miss Fitzpatrick sponsors one learns proper manners for all occasions. The members participate in teas and other social gatherings to give them practical experience.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, sponsored by Mr. Abernethy, has made a number of very interesting trips this year. They included Detroit Edison, Imperial Oil, Ruff's Creamery, Times Herald and Magnet Wire. In addition to the trips many scientific reports were made by members.

TRAVEL CLUB

The different modes of transportation and conditions in foreign countries that interest the tourist were studied by the members of the Travel Club under the direction of Miss Fitzpatrick.

LITTLE THEATRE

The Little Theatre, after a busy year presenting plays in assemblies, gave its annual three-act play "Charley's Aunt" on Friday, May 27th, under the direction of Miss Ballentine.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club is open to the advanced French pupils only. It meets every other Friday and is under the direction of Miss Everham.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club is composed of commercial students. They made many tours of offices such as Mueller's and Chrysler's. They also learned how many commercial machines operate. The club is under the direction of Miss Drescher.

BOYS' HI-Y

The Boys' Hi-Y with Mr. Ralph Cochrane and Mr. Allen Phillips as advisors has had a very active year. Weekly luncheons or pot luck dinner meetings are held at the school or at the Y.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Eichhorn, is one of the most interesting school activities. Members, having taken Latin two years, are able to participate in old Roman festivities.

BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club, sponsored by Miss Rowe, has been busy this year making posters and a small indoor glass-inclosed garden. Many enjoyable field trips have been taken.

CARMENTA CLUB

The Carmenta Club, sponsored by Miss Agard, had a big year with a bumper crop of thirty assistant librarians who deserve a great deal of credit for their faithful and enthusiastic co-operation. Numerous parties revealed unsuspected abilities not developed in the library but contributing to the success of a happy year.

HARMONICA BAND

This is the first year the school has had a Harmonica Band. Under the direction of Harry Rambaum, it has progressed very rapidly. There are now about twelve members. Miss Hyde is the club sponsor.

RADIO CLUB

The Radio Club under the supervision of Mr. Adams, meets every week. This year the boys are learning codes and preparing to take examinations to operate amateur radio sets.

PHILATELIC CLUB

The Philatelic Club is composed of students whose hobby is collecting stamps. It was formed to promote interest in this hobby. At their weekly meetings the members trade, sell, or auction their stamps, send for first day covers, display their collections, and take part in special programs.

SCRIBES' CLUB

The Bi-Weekly Scribes Club of advanced shorthand students, sponsored by Miss Turner, was organized for the purpose of gaining speed and accuracy in shorthand. The members worked for the Gregg O. G. A. Awards this year.

CREATIVE WRITERS

The members of the Creative Writing Club, under Miss Ballentine's leadership, have written many original short stories and poems. At their interesting meetings, the members learned the rules of composition.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club is under the direction of Miss McCollum. The members are divided evenly into two sides, the students on the white team playing against the black team. The person receiving the highest score for games won, wins the game. The semi-annual tournament held this semester was won by Merton Spencer.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, composed of three students from each class, discusses and acts upon suggestions from the student body concerning the school problems.

AERONAUTICS CLUB

The Aeronautics Club discusses the different types of airships and the technique of flying. Many model airplanes are built and two trips have been taken to Selfridge Field.

GIRLS' HI-Y

The Girls' Hi-Y, sponsored by Miss Stephen and Miss Edwards, has had a very entertaining year. They have had many dinner meetings, among which the most outstanding was the Mothers' and Daughters' banquet.

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club members are interested in the different phases of photography on which they have made many reports. Among their varied activities are developing, printing and enlarging films. The club is sponsored by Mr. Adams.

HOME ECONOMICS

The Home Economics Club, under the sponsorship of Miss Blackburn and Miss Laura Moore, design clothing, study correct kind and placement of furniture and discuss other items of interest in the home. They have also had many pleasant social meetings.

ART CLUB

The Art Club is sponsored by Mrs. Cochrane. One of their various interests was making Mexican belts. The members also worked on metal and did some painting.

P. H. CLUB

At their meetings held every other Monday, the P. H. members play games. They took care of doors at all the basketball games and were in charge of the mats at the circus as well as taking active part in the circus events.

G. A. A.

A club consisting of about forty girls interested in sports with three teams consisting of Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores. Basketball, volley ball and baseball are the main tournaments, but other teams for bowling, riding, archery, ping pong and shooting have been organized.

SERVICE CLUB

This club is under the supervision of Miss Robins. The members help to make the school a cleaner and better place in which to work and also supervise the traffic in the hall.

BAND

This year the band, under the direction of Mr. Straffon, has not only played for school and civic affairs but has also given its own concert. The First Nighter, held May 12 and 13, was the first appearance of the band members in their new red and white uniforms.

CHOIR

The Choir meets ninth hour in the auditorium. It is divided into ensembles which have many outside engagements to perform. The highlight of the year is the trip to Ypsilanti and the most important social event is the banquet at which the Seniors receive their pins.

CHORUS

The Chorus meets Wednesday afternoon and usually there is a half hour of secular singing. Its members took part in the yearly Christmas concert and in April were a part of the County Festival.

ATHLETICS

CLARENCE PHARE MEMORIAL

Harvey Wendorf was given the Clarence Phare Memorial Award at the assembly May 5. The boy who receives this award must play the game for the love of it rather than the glory of winning. He must be courteous to visiting teams and officials, look at the game as an aid to health, to pleasure, to self-control and to character.

Mr. Fowler, Mr. Cleminson and Mr. Myers select the boy for this award each year. Harvey acted as Captain of the basketball team after Roberts was injured.

FOOTBALL

Going through the season untied and undefeated, the Port Huron High School team has been acclaimed the Mythical Class A Champions of the State. Not since 1925 has a Port Huron team attained such heights. With three backfield men back from last year—Roberts, Johnson and Guillean, Coach Fowler was able to build a team with a great deal of offensive power. Besides this, they also had a good defensive in Johnson, Gillert and LePein.

HARBOR BEACH 0—PORT HURON 29

Although playing in a downpour of rain, Port Huron managed to pile up 29 points against Harbor Beach, a weak and inexperienced team. Although the score was large, the team's playing was not very impressive.

HAZEL PARK 0—PORT HURON 7

After playing "doggie" football the first half, Port Huron unclosed a powerful offensive attack in the second half and scored two touchdowns.

ROYAL OAK 0—PORT HURON 19

Port Huron finally got going in this game which was the first real test of Port Huron's power. The ball carrying on the part of Johnson and Roberts, the backing of LaPein, Gillert and Smith were the highlights of the game. The co-operation of these men kept the goal line from being crossed.

MT. CLEMENS 6—PORT HURON 26

Port Huron's goal line was crossed for the first time this season in this game although the victory was ours. A large crowd witnessed this game which was the fifth straight victory over Mt. Clemens for Port Huron.

SARNIA

The game scheduled with Sarnia was postponed because of wet grounds and was later cancelled.

PONTIAC 0—PORT HURON 14

Port Huron again showed their defensive power in this game. They avenged last year's defeat and kept their slate clean.

EAST DETROIT 6—PORT HURON 19

Outplaying Port Huron in the first half, Detroit was able to score. Port Huron came to life in the second half, pushed across three goals and gained another victory, making it seven straight. It was in this game that Eddie Roberts was injured and was unable to play the rest of the season.

GROSSE POINT 6—PORT HURON 7

Grosse Pointe's failure to score the extra point after a touchdown, gave Port Huron a one point victory and enabled them to claim the Michigan Mythical Class A Football Championship for the season of 1937.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

The annual football banquet was held in the Harrington Hotel, December 6. L. A. Weil, editor of the Port Huron Times Herald, was toastmaster for the evening. Gus Dorais, famous football coach of U. of D., was the principal speaker.

FOOTBALL HONORS

Clyde (Pop) Johnson was chosen for Ritter's and Lawton's all-state teams. Bud LePein was given a berth on the third team by Remington. George Gillert was given a place on Ritter's third team.

The following were awarded letters: Co-captains Clyde Johnson and Ed. Roberts, Ralph Turnbull, Joe Guillean, Calvin Battle, Jim Washington, Bud Seeley, Fred Campbell, Bill Smith, Glenn Lashbrook, George Gillert, Eugene LePein, Wellington Pollock, Bob Thompson, Clarence Limberg, Mandel Ashford, Herbert DeLacy, Carter Perry, Dave Carey, Merle Casmer, Marshall Harmon and Art Roberts, manager.

Bob Thompson, tackle, and Jack O'Reilly, quarterback, were elected co-captains for the season of 1938.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team, under the excellent training of Mr. Fowler, had a very successful season in spite of two injuries and the February graduation which claimed three of the first five players.

To start the season Coach Fowler had Harvey Wendorf, Ed. Roberts, Clyde Johnson, Bill Buntrock and Jim Cowley, all of whom won letters last year. Roberts was lost after the first game due to a knee injury received during the past gridiron season. Ralph Hurnbull, who took Roberts' place, broke two bones in his right foot in the last game of the season with Grosse Pointe. Ralph was unable to play in any of the tournament games which were only a week away. Jack O'Reilly was Brick's choice to fill in for Turnbull.

A REVIEW OF THE SEASON'S GAMES

Port Huron opened the season in London, Ontario, defeating the Western Ontarion Frosh 21-10.

Flint Northern gave Port Huron its first defeat of the season by a score of 32-24.

Port Huron won easily over Hazel Park 30-16.

Displaying a smooth offense, aided by some good ball handling Port Huron nosed out a fast Kalamazoo quintet 29-27.

Port Huron squeezed out a 26-23 victory over Toledo Scott.

Coach Fowler used two teams in running up a 47-11 victory over Ferndale.

The Red Whites swamped Mt. Clemens, their chief rival, 40-18.

Port Huron treked to Lansing and won an exciting overtime game from Lansing Eastern 27-25.

Traveling on to Kalamazoo, Port Huron lost a rough battle to St. Augustine by a score of 40-26.

Port Huron won its eighth game of the season defeating East Detroit 28-19.

Port Huron ended their first half of the season with a 36-33 victory over Hazel Park. Clyde Johnson, Harvey Wendorf and Bill Buntrock ended their high school athletic careers with this game.

The newly organized team defeated Mt. Clemens 42-12.

In conquering East Detroit 23-14, Port Huron was more impressive than in the first contest earlier in the season.

Port Huron lost its third game of the season to Toledo Libby 27-18 in what was the finest exhibition of high school basketball seen here in years.

Port Huron won its final game of the season from Grosse Pointe 30-25 in a thrilling game.

Port Huron won the state regional tournament and reached the quarter finals of the State Class A High School Basketball Championship by defeating Ferndale 40-17, Grosse Pointe 32-27 and Pontiac 24-20. Saginaw Eastern knocked them off in the quarter finals. The record for the scheduled season was 12 victories and 3 defeats.

The letter winners were Edward Roberts, Clyde Johnson, Bill Buntrock, Harvey Wendorf, Ralph Turnbull, Jim Cowley, Ford Whipple, James Washington, Jack O'Reilly and Francis Dagg; Arthur Roberts and Duncan McClellan were managers.

BASEBALL

Coach Willard Blackney built a strong defensive team in the hopes of equalling last year's record. Last year the team went through the season undefeated. Ralph Turnbull, Francis Dagg and Bob Ritchie, all of whom won letters last year were back. George French, second base; Stan. Gorinac, third base; Jack O'Reilly, right field; Terence Byrnes, left field; Wimpy Hayes, catcher, and Lynwood Schneider made up the remainder of the squad. Mandel Ashford and Jimmy Finley were the pitchers.

CHEER LEADERS

Continuing the splendid work which they began last year, our girl cheer leaders gave remarkable performances at the home games. Working with the boy leaders, they improved the old yells and made new ones. At one of the assemblies, the cheer leaders received pins and letters for their services.

TRAFFIC SQUAD

Before we get too near the end of the book, let us give a few words of thanks and praise to the boys on the traffic squad. Every Thursday morning they carry out their imposing stop signs and in rain or shine stand guard to keep us from straying into the paths of the automobiles.

KNICK KNACKS

Class of 1938 presents: A Midsummer Grad's Nightmare, or (Why did I drink 8 cokes?)

Once upon a time, there was a Young Knight who fell in love with a Phare Cook because of the Sage-flavored Gruel she made. They met one day on a Beach where she had Gawne to Wade. They held Hands, and looking into her Brown eyes, he said, "Before you I Neal and Baer my Hart, Darling." Soon love was in Bluhm and their life was filled with Bliss.

Then one day, he and his friend, the Taylor, a Stoudt Tallman, decided to go Fox hunting. With a Gay laugh that tinkled like a Bell, Cookie tossed him a Rose and called as he rode off, "Let this be our Bond."

But then, smelling the Gruel beginning to Byrne in the Ketels, she cried, "That is Dunn!" and running back to the Hall, she ran through the Dore and rescued the food. "Where is that Porter?" she cried, "I suppose I will have to go and Wakeham up. He is nothing but a Thorne in my side! He Phibbs all the time!"

But let us see where the Knight has Gawne. He comes first to O'Reilly Lake surrounded by Reids and in the center was a small group of Iles. Hearing the water go, Gurgle, Gurgle, he said to his servant, Butch: "Oh, Moses, am I thirsty—Fitch me a drink." Upon receiving it, he took a Hardy swallow and then said, "Bring me food." The servant complained at this but the Knight cried, "Soehner Moore!" So Butch yelling Heidy-di! went off to see if someone Wood Soell him something to eat. An old man with a Whitehead offered to Soell him some food that went pop-Crackel-snap! Butch bought this and took it back to camp. When they had eaten the food, they went out and shot some Bucks and then set out for home again.

The Knight, when he at last Gaines his home again, is overjoyed to see his Cookie and that Knight, he Parks his prancing white charger on the Beach and he and Cookie Pitch-a-little, woo! And, believe it or not, they lived happily Everham Moore!

The End of It All,
but Wilson be back with Moore.

---

Say kids, there's one thing I can't stand,
It simply makes me wild,
That one so grown in all respects
Should still be such a child.

It makes me rave, it makes me tear,
It makes me . . . . well, Oh, Fie!
I'll solve the mystery with disgust—
. . . . It's Hunter's Heidy-di!

---

Jerry Holth: Can you keep a secret?
Bud Limberg: I sure can.
Jerry: Well, I'm in need of five bucks.
Bud: Be at rest, it is as if I had heard nothing.

Mr. Ohmer: What is the formula for $H_2O$?
Mary Frances Madden: HIJKLMNO.
Mr. Ohmer: What!
Mary Frances: Well, you said give you the formula for h to o.

---

They both stood under the mistletoe
He didn't know what to do,
For Johnny Thorne was five foot four
And Martha six feet two.

The one who thinks these jokes are poor,
Would straightway change his views,
Could he compare the jokes we print,
With those we do not choose.

Francis Dagg: Some pieces of music simply carry me away.
Laura Falk: Name one of your favorite pieces.

Gracie: It is going to rain. Don't you think we had better hug the shore?
Eddie: Why the shore?

---

Miss Hyde: Will the prettiest girl in the choir please stop talking?
Result: A pin could be heard striking the floor.

All Sophomores and Juniors: We sent you a list of suggestions for running the Student. Were they carried out?
Bob Miesmer: Yes, there goes the janitor with them now.

---

Joe Wetzel: What a nice hand you have.
Bann Nelson: Do you like it? I'm sort of attached to it myself.

The laziest person we know: The college boy who is too lazy to write home for money.

---

Grandmother: The cow says moo; the sheep says baa.
Modern Problem Child: What kind of noise does the armadillo make?

---

Ed. Henry: Ever study a blotter?
Virginia Purtle: No, silly.
Ed.: Very absorbing thing.

---

That's a new one on me said Buck Marczan as he scratched his head.

---

Frank Tuer: Let's think hard now.
Ruth Kapanka: No, let's do something you can do too.

June 23—Eevrybody did the Hula Hula at our Fiji Island Hop.

SPOTLIGHT

Port Huron High School has another triumph to add to its long list. The third annual Spotlight was presented in the High School Gym, April twenty-second, for a successful run of two nights.

The acts were composed entirely of talent from the different schools under the able direction of Miss Etta Reid.

Twenty acts were presented each night. Among the outstanding acts on the first night were the "Rythm Youngsters," which featured Mildred Krenke as vocalist; Betty Hewitt, who entertained the crowd with an acrobatic dance; and Jane Thom, who showed us how exhausting it is to conduct a symphony orchestra. "What's This World Coming To," was composed and presented by Jane Hicks. Johnny Peacock, who certainly has rhythm, showed us his interpretation of a soft shoe dance. A style show, "Costumes of the Ages," was presented by the Home Economics Club. "Snowwhite and the Seven Dwarfs" were smartly presented by the Honor Society.

The headliners on the second program were Velma Knight, who did a difficult acrobatic dance; she was followed by Barbara Cole who played the marimba. The P. H. Club sponsored a very entertaining act entitled "Between Halves." Harry Rambaum really put his heart and soul into his harmonica solos, which brought the house down. Ed. Henry's tenor solo was very well received as was the duet by Dick Hammersmith and Lois Bliss. The South Park Swing Band showed us what rhythm really is. Last, but not least, came Betty Wohlberg who was very much befuddled at a baseball game. I wonder who won?

LIFE OF A JOKE

Birth: A freshman thinks it up and chuckles with glee, waking up two seniors in the back row.

Age 4 minutes: Freshman tells it to senior, who answers: "Yeah, it's funny, but I've heard it before."

Age 1 day: Senior turns it in to the Lighthouse as his own.

Age 2 days: Editor thinks it's terrible.

Age 10 days: Editor has to fill magazine, prints joke.

This joke goes on for a long time and after about twenty years the Literary Digest gets a hold of it. It travels some more and after one hundred years it reaches its fullest success: Teachers start telling the joke in their classes.

Harold Lauth: Would you care to go to the next All-Hi dance?
Dorothy Downey: Oh, I'd be delighted.
Harold: Well, will you buy your ticket from me?

---

Army Sergeant—When did you blow in?
Bill Smith: With the last draft, sir.

MOTTOS

Egotist's: An I for an I.
Tightwad's: Backward, turn backward, O dime in thy flight.
Farmer's: Weed 'em and reap.
High School Boy's: Can't count your chickens before they show up for the date.
The Old Folks': When is the younger generation coming to?
Crook's: A thing of booty is a joy forever.
Londoner's: There's no police like Holmes.

---

Nell Fead: My Scotch boy friend sent me his picture yesterday.
Phil. Buck: How does he look?
Nell: I don't know yet. I haven't had it developed.

"Yessir," said young Harry Strange, "I've planned just how I'll become a successful lawyer and die weighted down with money and honors. Why I've written my own epitaph: 'Here lies Harry, Who Lived and Died an Honest Lawyer'."
"Some epitaph!" sniffed a listener. "They won't even know what your name was."
"Sure they will!" retorted Harry. "When they read it—they'll say, 'That's Strange'!"

---

Luella Wakeham: Where can I find Mary Ellen Parry?
Miss Seibert: I don't know; she went to the library.
